Council of Ministers establishes Commission for Cooperation with NATO – FENA

📅 February 25, 2021

The BiH Council of Ministers on Wednesday adopted a decision establishing the Commission for Cooperation with NATO, as well as the Reform Program to be sent to Brussels.

The BiH Foreign Minister Bisera Turković at a news conference after the CoM session said that the commission's name has been changed from the original "the Commission for the integration into NATO" to the present name of the Commission.

She explained that the commission will consist of seven representatives from each of the constituent peoples, who will make decisions according to the same principle as it is done in the Council of Ministers, in two rounds of voting.
